

YOUR INTERNAL APPEAL, EXTERNAL REVIEW AND GRIEVANCE RIGHTS

[Stop-loss insurance]

Allied National, Inc. ("Allied") is the administrator for your stop-loss or excess-loss insurance ("Stop-Loss"), pursuant to a contract with the underwriting carrier ("Stop-Loss Carrier"). This important notice ("Stop-Loss Appeal Notice") explains your right to contest any claim determination that may adversely impact your benefits or coverage under the Stop-Loss insurance ("Adverse Determination"). Please carefully review the information and follow all instructions to fully exercise your internal appeal, external review and grievance rights. The Stop-Loss Carrier may, at any time, elect to terminate the appeal process, by reversing the Adverse Determination.

Note: Allied and the Stop-Loss insurance do not pre-certify, pre-approve, pre-authorize or otherwise determine benefits or coverage in advance. Instead, all benefit and coverage determinations occur only after a claim is incurred and filed with Allied ("Post-Claim Determinations"). Therefore, the scope of this Stop-Loss Appeal Notice is limited to appeal rights for Post-Claim Determinations.

INTERNAL APPEALS

If you disagree with an Adverse Determination, you have the right to appeal to the Stop-Loss Carrier ("Internal Appeal"). Allied will process and respond to the Internal Appeal on behalf of the Stop-Loss Carrier. Internal Appeal must be requested within 180 CALENDAR DAYS [six (6) months] of your receipt of the Adverse Determination.

To request Internal Appeal, please follow these instructions:

- A. The Internal Appeal must be submitted in writing:
 1. State your full name, date of birth and policy number, identify the claim in question, clearly explain why you disagree with the Adverse Determination, and enclose any documents, records or other information supporting the Internal Appeal.
 2. Sign, date and address your Internal Appeal (see Allied's contact information below).
 3. Be sure to mail your Internal Appeal to Allied within the above 180-day deadline.
- B. Upon request and at no charge, you may have reasonable access (including copies) to the claim file for the Adverse Determination, including all related documents, records and information.
- C. You or your authorized representative may request the Internal Appeal.
- D. A hearing, panel review or other formal in-person proceeding will not be conducted. All evidence and testimony must be received in writing (including copies of documents, records and information relating to the Adverse Determination).

Allied will respond to your Internal Appeal as follows:

- A. Allied will acknowledge your Internal Appeal within 5 business days of receipt.
- B. Allied will ignore the Adverse Determination, so that its review of the claim in question will be a "fresh" look.
- C. Allied's review of your Internal Appeal will be conducted by a person: not involved in the Adverse Determination; not currently supervised by someone involved in that determination; and whose terms of employment are not based on the likelihood of upholding that determination.
- D. Allied's review will include any relevant comments, documents, records or other information not considered at the time of the Adverse Determination.
- E. If the Adverse Determination is based, in whole or part, on a Medical Judgment Determination (defined below), Allied's review of your Internal Appeal will include consultation with a health care professional: trained and experienced in the medical field relevant to the Medical Judgment Determination; not involved in that determination; not currently supervised by someone involved in that determination; and whose terms of employment are not based on the likelihood of upholding that determination.
- F. Allied will inform you of the results of your Internal Appeal within 30 calendar days of receipt.
- G. Allied's response will include copies, free of charge, of any clinical rationale, medical review criteria, or comments, documents, records or other information not considered at the time of the Adverse Determination, to the extent considered or relied upon by Allied during its review of your Internal Appeal.

Important:

- Only one (1) Internal Appeal is allowed per claim, unless you elect an optional "Second Internal Appeal" (see below).
- Completion of an Internal Appeal exhausts all of your rights of appeal, unless the Adverse Determination qualifies for "External Review" (see below).

(This information is not part of your Policy)"SECOND" INTERNAL APPEALS (Optional)

If you disagree with Allied's response to your Internal Appeal, you may: 1. Request an optional "Second Internal Appeal"; OR 2. Go directly to "External Review" (if qualified, see below).

To request a Second Internal Appeal, please: complete and submit your request using the above instructions for Internal Appeals; clearly explain why you disagree with Allied's response (to your first Internal Appeal); enclose any new documents, records or other information supporting your Second Internal Appeal; and submit to our office within 180 CALENDAR DAYS [six (6) months] of the date you received Allied's response (to your first Internal Appeal). Allied will inform you of the results of your Second Internal Appeal within 30 calendar days of receipt.

Important:

- A Second Internal Appeal is completely voluntary.
- A Second Internal Appeal is not required to exhaust your rights of appeal under the Stop-Loss insurance.
- Only one (1) Second Internal Appeal is allowed per claim.

EXTERNAL REVIEWS

If you disagree with Allied's response to your Internal Appeal (or Second Internal Appeal, if elected) AND the Adverse Determination qualifies as a Medical Judgment Determination (defined below), you have the right to request "External Review". External Review must be requested within 120 CALENDAR DAYS [four (4) months] of the date you received Allied's response to your Internal Appeal (or Second Internal Appeal, if elected).

A "Medical Judgment Determination" includes, but is not limited to, these types of Adverse Determinations:

- Denied as not medically necessary (treatment, service or provider).
- Denied as experimental treatment.
- Denied as pre-existing, based on timing of diagnosis, treatment or symptoms.
- Coverage rescinded, based on timing of diagnosis, treatment or symptoms.
- Denied under a condition or treatment specific exclusion, based on identification of the type of condition.
- Denied under a condition or treatment specific exclusion, based on classification of the treatment as "non-emergency".

To request External Review, please follow these instructions:

- A. If state specific forms/instructions are attached, your External Review will be processed by the Department of Insurance (or comparable agency) ("DOI") for your state of residence. Complete the forms as instructed and mail to the DOI within the 120-day deadline stated above.
- B. If state specific forms/instructions are not attached:
 1. Submit your External Review request in writing to Allied, as follows:
 - a. State your full name, date of birth and certificate or policy number, identify the claim in question, clearly explain why you disagree with Allied's response to your Internal Appeal (or Second Internal Appeal, if elected) and enclose any supporting documents, records or other information.
 - b. Sign, date and address your External Review (see Allied's contact information below).
 - c. Be sure to mail your External Review to Allied within the 120-day deadline stated above.
 2. You or your authorized representative may request External Review.
 3. Allied will acknowledge your External Review within 5 business days of receipt.
 4. Allied will refer your External Review to an independent review organization ("IRO") for a written opinion.
 5. The IRO will consider any relevant comments, documents, records or other information not considered for the Adverse Determination or Allied's response (to your Internal Appeal, or Second Internal Appeal, if elected).
 6. The IRO review will be conducted by a health care professional trained and experienced in the medical field relevant to the Medical Judgment Determination.
 7. Within 30 calendar days of receiving your External Review, Allied will inform you of the results and provide a redacted copy of the IRO written opinion.

Important:

- Some states may charge you a small processing fee for conducting External Review.
- External Reviews processed by Allied are provided at no charge to you.
- Only one (1) External Review is allowed per claim.
- If the Adverse Determination qualifies as a Medical Judgment Determination, completion of External Review exhausts all of your rights of appeal.

(This information is not part of your Policy)GRIEVANCES

If you have a complaint or concern regarding administration of your Stop-Loss insurance, you have the right to submit a written grievance ("Grievance"):

- To the Stop-Loss Carrier: Submit your written Grievance to Allied (see Allied's contact information below). Allied will conduct a thorough review of your Grievance, then respond on behalf of the Stop-Loss Carrier within 30 calendar days.
- To the Department of Insurance (or comparable agency) ("DOI") for your state of residence: See the DOI contact information below.

OTHER ASSISTANCE

If you have any other questions regarding administration of your Stop-Loss insurance, you have the right to seek assistance:

- From the Stop-Loss Carrier: Go to Allied's website at www.alliednational.com/compliance; Call Allied's Customer Service Dept. at 1-800-825-7531; or write to Allied National, Inc., P.O. Box 29186, Shawnee Mission, KS 66201.

JUDICIAL REVIEW

If you exhaust all administrative rights of appeal under the Stop-Loss insurance (as indicated above), you may have the right to bring a civil action under state law. The time limitations stated in your policy (for bringing legal actions or proceedings) apply to any such civil action. Please consult an attorney for more information.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The confidentiality of any personal health information, including but not limited to medical records, insurance records, IRO opinions and DOI files, will be maintained throughout the appeal process, pursuant to applicable federal and state privacy laws.
