THIS AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is effective the ____ day of _____, 20__ by and between _____ (“Business Associate”) and STANDARD LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY (“Company”).

RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS PRACTICES GUIDELINES

PLEASE REVIEW THE ENCLOSED GUIDELINES AND PRODUCER'S CODE OF CONDUCT AS PART OF YOUR APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT WITH STANDARD LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY AND/OR AMERICAN NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF TEXAS. THEY EXPLAIN OUR EXPECTATIONS ABOUT THE WAY WE WILL CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS WITH EACH OTHER AND WITH OUR POLICYHOLDERS. SIGN AND RETURN A COPY OF THE PRODUCER'S CODE OF CONDUCT WITH THE OTHER FORMS YOU COMPLETE IN THE APPLICATION PROCESS.

The Responsible Business Practices Guidelines specified herein (hereafter referred to as “the Guidelines”) clarify the position of Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company and American National Life Insurance Company of Texas (hereafter referred to as “the Company,” “we,” or “our”) on the importance of good market conduct practices in the sale of our life insurance, health insurance and annuity products.

Our Commitment

Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company and American National Life Insurance Company of Texas are committed to adhering to principles of ethical market conduct and requires that our appointed representatives do the same.

Principles:

- ✧ to conduct business according to high standards of honesty and fairness, and to render that service to our customers which, in the same circumstances, we would apply to or demand for ourselves;
- ✧ to provide competent and customer-focused service;
- ✧ to engage in active and fair competition;
- ✧ to provide advertising and sales materials that are clear as to purpose and honest and fair as to content;
- ✧ to provide for fair and expeditious handling of customer complaints and disputes; and
- ✧ to maintain a system of supervision and review that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with these principles of ethical market conduct.

Interpretation and Compliance

These principles are good business—for you the producer, for the Company, and for our customers—through sound conduct. Compliance with these principles remains our shared goal.

To ensure uniform interpretation of and compliance with these principles, Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company and American National Life Insurance Company of Texas have assigned Debie Knowles, Vice President, Marketing, supervisory responsibilities over the creation and maintenance of consistent procedures via which we will implement these principles and monitor compliance.

Putting into place the training component of support for these principles will, in part, be the responsibility of Debie Knowles, Vice President, Marketing, as will the oversight on the effectiveness of integrating these principles into the Company’s operation and development.

In addition, we will conduct regular surveys of new policyholders. We expect to gain valuable insight into the types of new products and services we should offer to better meet the policyholders’ objectives. The surveys are also expected to help us determine the areas that are in need of better product explanation and ultimately, producer training.

What happens when things go wrong?

From time to time, you may find yourself in a situation where you become aware of sales activities that you think are questionable, in light of these principles. If this is the case, we have specific people you should notify.

In all events, you can talk to Debie Knowles, the head of our Marketing activities. You can reach her at the Marketing Department, at 888.290.1085. Her e-mail address is debie.knowles@slaico.com.

Outside of the Marketing Department, you can contact Judy Regini, in Corporate Affairs, at 409.766.6985, or by e-mail, at judy.regini@anico.com.

All market conduct issues will be dealt with to ensure privacy and confidentiality for all parties involved. The Company will not tolerate any form of retaliation against anyone who uses this process.

Here are some examples of the kinds of questionable sales activities we are referring to:

- ✧ use of disparaging statements in a sales presentation i.e., any statements, written or oral, that are untrue, deceptive, misleading or otherwise unlawful with regard to competitors;
- ✧ unfair competition i.e., engaging in inappropriate replacement of existing insurance, disparaging competitors, use of dishonest, false or fraudulent practices to displace a competitor;
- ✧ use of unapproved sales materials, or approved sales materials modified without prior approval;
- ✧ inducing or influencing Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company and/or American National Life Insurance Company of Texas producers to leave its service.

This is obviously not an exhaustive list. It is an indication of the kinds of practices that are not consistent with these principles, insurance laws and regulations, or your Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company and/or American National Life Insurance Company of Texas contracts.

Debie Knowles and Judy Regini are also assigned responsibility for dealing with complaints. It is important you refer any complaints from your policyholders to the Company promptly so we can resolve them. We have found that complaints do not go away until the customer is fully satisfied.

Many of the things which make policyholders dissatisfied with our services or products are based on misunderstandings or unsuccessful communication. If we can resolve the issue early, we can frequently avoid having them escalate into a full-blown Insurance Department complaint.

At the same time, customers who find that the Company and their agents are genuinely interested in making their perceived problems go away can be a valuable asset to you, both in terms of increased persistency and as a source of referrals.

Replacement

Replacement activity is the focus of scrutiny by both insurance regulators and the ratings agencies which grade our financial condition. These groups are expressing increased concern about perceived abusive practices like “twisting” (inappropriate external replacements) and “churning” (inappropriate internal replacements). As a result of these concerns, we are seeing a move towards detailed replacement forms such as those found in the new NAIC Model Replacement Regulations, already adopted in several states.

The kinds of practices which have aroused concern, and which are considered “replacements” are more broadly defined than just terminating an existing policy when a new one is sold. It also includes things like these:

- ✧ encouraging a policyholder to borrow against current life or annuity policy values to pay for a new one;
- ✧ encouraging a policyholder to place existing coverage under one of the nonforfeiture options (e.g., RPU or ETI) in conjunction with purchasing new insurance;
- ✧ having the benefits under an existing policy reduced or restructured to free up cash flow for a new policy.

Replacement of existing insurance is frequently not in the best interest of either the client or the insurer. These will be some of the concerns:

- ✧ exposure of the client to new contestable and suicide periods;
- ✧ new sales and expense loads;
- ✧ increased age and possible changes in policyholder health;
- ✧ loss of any “grandfathered” policy or tax benefits;
- ✧ potential loss of revenue and surplus to the Company; and
- ✧ potential increased exposure to policyholder complaints.

Because each client’s position is unique, you have to weigh these known costs against potential benefits for the client to determine whether a possible replacement is to their advantage. The best benchmark for judging that is the following:

To conduct business according to high standards of honesty and fairness, and to render that service to our customers which, in the same circumstances, we would apply to, or demand for ourselves.

Replacement of existing insurance, especially life insurance and annuities, should be recommended to a client only when you can clearly and objectively demonstrate the client is better off as a result. This is also consistent with the official Statement of Policy Regarding Replacements, adopted by all members of the American National family of companies:

Agents should not advise, suggest, or recommend that an existing life insurance or annuity contract be replaced unless it is in the interests of the customer.

As an insurance producer, your skills and services help our clients achieve financial success and security. Since you are on the front lines of a multi-billion dollar industry, you are in a unique position not only to serve our clients, but also to serve this country by helping prevent money laundering and the financing of terrorist activities.

To comply with new federal anti-money laundering regulations for insurance companies, our family of companies is implementing a detailed anti-money laundering program. You have an important role to play in that program. You may often be in a critical position to obtain information regarding the customer, the customer's source of funds for the products we sell, and the customer's reasons for purchasing an insurance product.

In order to sell individual annuities and life insurance, the Company's anti-money laundering program requires you to:

- Ensure that all information requested on the product application and associated documents is accurate and complete, including the USA PATRIOT Act Notification and Customer Identification Verification form for all non-variable business.
- Contact the appropriate Anti-Money Laundering (AML) compliance officer if a customer resists providing information. (See contact information further in this document.)
- Maintain appropriate records of this information as long as the contract remains in force and for five years thereafter.
- Notify the appropriate AML compliance officer if you detect any money laundering red flags, so that the Company can determine whether a suspicious activity report (SAR) must be filed with the U.S. Department of the Treasury or any agency thereof.

Possible Red Flag Activity

- The purchase of a product that appears to be inconsistent with a customer's needs
- The purchase or funding of a product that appears to exceed a customer's known income or liquid net worth
- Any attempted unusual method of payment, particularly by cash or cash equivalents, such as money orders or cashier checks
- Payment of a large amount broken into several smaller amounts
- Little or no concern by a customer for the performance of an insurance product, but much concern about the early termination features of the product
- The reluctance by a customer to provide identifying information, or the provision of information that seems fictitious
- Any other activity which you think is suspicious

Types of Payments Accepted

Advise customers that only the following types of payment may be accepted:

- Personal checks and pre-authorized checks.
- Cash equivalents (money orders, cashier's checks, traveler's checks, bank drafts.)
 - Cash and cash equivalents must be reported to the IRS and FinCEN on Form 8300 when payments received by the Company in a single transaction. Related transactions occurring within any 12-month period would be aggregated for reporting purposes even if individually they are less than $10,000.
- If a customer provides a form of payment that is not permitted, do not accept the payment and notify the appropriate AML compliance officer if it is in an amount greater than the limits defined herein.

NOTE: An employee, agent or broker must not, under any circumstances, disclose that he has reported suspicious activity or red flags to the Company. Any inquiries regarding the subject matter of any SAR must be directed to the AML officer.

It is the sole responsibility of the Company's AML officer to determine whether a SAR is filed with the Treasury Department. The AML officer and the Company are prohibited from disclosing to the agent and any other person that a SAR has been filed.

The Company and its producers share an important responsibility to comply with the Company's program and all applicable anti-money laundering laws. A failure to do so will constitute grounds for discipline, up to and including termination. In addition, violation of anti-money laundering laws may expose those responsible to substantial penalties under federal law.
