

Webinars Starting Soon: Short-Term Coverage Solutions From Pivot Health

Our partner, Pivot Health, has scheduled webinars that will give you the latest information on short term plans – and specifically on Pivot Health’s individual plans.

Short-term health plans can be an invaluable solution for individuals who need temporary coverage during life transitions – such as changing jobs, waiting for employer coverage to begin or missing an open enrollment window. Pivot Health’s short-term plans stand out because they’re designed for flexibility, with multiple price points, coverage levels, and policy lengths to fit different needs.
