

Gas Prices are Up Health Plan Costs Don't Have to Be

We can't help with high gas prices, but we can help your small business clients escape an overpriced health plan.

It's time to give them Freedom.

Our Freedom plans, powered by the new Freedom Open Access solution, are designed to tackle what traditional, inefficient health plans get wrong: high costs, unnecessary complexity, and limited flexibility. Freedom delivers a smarter, more affordable approach that works for teams of any size or budget without sacrificing value or quality.

Because just like fuel efficiency, the best coverage isn't one-size-fits-all.

With Freedom Open Access, you can offer your clients:

- More control over costs
- Simplified, open access to care

- Flexible plan design tailored to real-world needs
- Refund potential - employers get 100% unused claim funds back.

Reach out to an Allied National Account Executive at sales@alliednational.com to learn how Freedom Open Access can elevate your small group strategy and help your clients spend less time worrying about health costs and more time thriving.
